

NEWS FROM CITY HALL

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, JANUARY 29, 2014

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: LISA MOSCA, PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICER

407.688-5019 • LISA.MOSCA@SANFORDFL.GOV

---

New Exhibit “Praise, Reach, and Teach: The Legacy of Professor Joseph and Wealthy Crooms” to open at Sanford Museum in February

In celebration of Black History Month, honoring the history and contributions of African Americans, a new exhibit about the lives, legacy and influence of Sanford educators Joseph and Wealthy Crooms will open at the Sanford Museum on Saturday, February 15 and run through May, 2014.

The exhibit, “Praise, Reach, and Teach: The Legacy of Professor Joseph and Wealthy Crooms” was funded by a donation from The Orlando Times and was researched and designed by Sanford Historical Society President, Valada Flewellyn.

The Sanford Museum is located at 520 East First Street, Sanford. Hours of Operation: Tuesday – Friday, 11 AM to 4 PM, Saturday 1pm to 4pm. Admission is free. For further information call 407-688-5198.

###